Introduction

While playing, children learn a lot from their parents.

Apart from their mother tongue, the way of living, manners and etiquettes of life, they also obtain useful pieces of advice from their parents and utilize them throughout their lives.

Keeping this in mind, we have prepared this booklet for kids to teach them the basics of our beloved religion.

We request parents and elders to keep reading and repeating these questions and answers audibly in the presence of your kids, and you will see that kids will quickly remember this information in their minds.

May Allah bless your kids and brighten their hearts and minds with the light of Islam!
